ORDER

2006R00047

UPON consideration of the application of the United States for an ex parte order pursuant to 26 U.S.C. 6103(i)(1) and (4), directing the Internal Revenue Service to disclose returns and return information of certain individuals for the taxable periods of 1999 through 2005, the Court finds:

1. There is reasonable cause to believe, based upon information believed to be reliable, that violations of Title 21, Section 846 and 841 have been committed; and
2. There is reasonable cause to believe that the returns and return information are or may be relevant to a matter related to this violation;
3. The returns and return information are sought exclusively for use in a federal investigation and proceeding (not involving tax administration) concerning this violation;
4. The information sought to be disclosed cannot reasonably be obtained, under the circumstances, from another source. The Court further finds that applicant and
